

FLEMING MURDERER
HAD PLANNED TO ESCAPE FROM JAIL

Arthur Morrison Sentenced to Seven Years for Slaying William Collins at Flemingsburg, Surrenders Hidden Saws.

Arthur Morrison, convicted in the Fleming Circuit Court last week of the slaying of William Collins in the hills of Fleming county several months ago, evidently had planned his escape from the Fleming county jail but recanted when the jury gave him only a seven year penitentiary term.

In regard to the matter the Fleming Gazette says:

Morrison has the reputation of a lawless and dangerous man, and has caused much trouble to the officers, taking refuge in the mountainous sections of Fleming county, where he was born and reared.

It would seem that Morrison has decided to accept the sentence meted to him by the action Wednesday after he had been returned to jail in giving up to Jailer Tom McRobert two steel saw blades he had concealed in the bottom of a candy box. Jailer McRobert told him that his cell was to be searched and Morrison then surrendered the blades. He informed the jailer the blades had been used, and they looked as though they had.

The next day after the saws were found, an examination of Morrison's cell was made and four of the bars were found badly sawed, some of them almost through. The supposition is Morrison's saws were out before he completed his job.

The cuts in the bars had been filled with chewing gum and dirt to avoid detection.

Morrison was sentenced by the court Friday, and Sheriff Overton, took him to Frankfort the same afternoon to begin serving his penalty.

NEWPORT ROLLING MILLS
SURRENDER KY. CHARTER

Firm Will Be Re-Incorporated Under Delaware Laws and Thus Become An Inter-State Organization.

Officers and stockholders of the Newport Rolling Mill Company, Ninth and Lowell streets, Newport, where a strike has been in progress for several months and where soldiers now are stationed to keep order, have decided to dissolve their company and surrender their charter to the State of Kentucky under the laws of which they obtained it.

But—the officers and stockholders of the Newport Rolling Mill Company will reorganize and reincorporate under the laws of Delaware, and the new company will become an interstate corporation and will continue to operate the plant of the Newport Rolling Mill Company.

Thus the Newport Rolling Mill, or rather the new company organized under the laws of Delaware and holding its charter from that state, having become an interstate corporation, will be vested with the right to seek justice in the United States Court if any person or persons or organized group of persons interferes with the conduct of its affairs.

Notice of the intention of the Newport Rolling Mill Company to surrender its charter was given out Tuesday in a written statement signed by A. K. Andrews, President, and J. G. Andrews, Secretary.

POPE'S FUNERAL TO BE ON THURSDAY;
POLITICS LOOMING

Burial of Pope Benedict Is Postponed One Day—Election of His Successor Attract Much Attention.

Rome, Jan. 24. — For another day the body of Benedict XV will lie in state. The funeral ceremonial will thus be delayed until Thursday. An official announcement to this effect was made this afternoon, with the qualification, however, that should previous burial be advisable the final rites would occur tomorrow, as originally arranged.

Benedict's tomb will face that in which Pope Pius VI lies. It adjoins that of Queen Christina of Sweden, who, having abdicated the throne in 1654, settled in Rome, where she died in 1689.

Fully 500,000 persons have filed past the catafalque in St. Peter's to view the body of the Pope, and while the great procession has been orderly, its very vastness has entailed strenuous labors on the part of gendarmes and guards, for the stream moved slowly amid scenes of grief and mourning.

The formal registration of the death of Benedict took place this morning in the Roman capitol. The death record was entered in a specially prepared register, lined in satin and was engraved in silver.

An alignment of forces and opinions which are likely to clash in the conclave for the election of the new Pope was plainly discernible this evening, although the opening session is nine days distant. That the question of closer relations between the Italian Government and the Vatican dominates the discussion is the consensus of opinion in religious circles and the press.

That group led by Cardinal Merry Del Val, it is reported, will have more than a majority in the conclave. The so-called "peace party" of which Cardinal Mailli is head, represents perhaps a little more than one-third of the votes while the center, the leader of which is Gasparri, favoring continuance of the policy of Pope Benedict, tolerance without actual recognition, is fewer in number. There may be a possible change if the election is conducted along strict party lines. A two-thirds vote is necessary for the election of the Pontiff.

MATT MOORE ESSAYS FINE ROLL IN PICTURE

Leading Man in "The Passionate Pilgrim" Is Commended By the Author.

Matt Moore, the young Irish screen favorite, has appeared in a number of Cosmopolitan productions, which have scored great successes, but has never done more effective work than in "The Passionate Pilgrim," which comes to the Washington theater Thursday.

Moore has the part of a famous novelist, who has been through a great tragedy in which he has had to make heavy sacrifices and at the beginning of the picture play he is just beginning life anew, in humble circumstances, but soon to arise to power, wealth and fame again and to win a wonderful love triumph. Mr. Meerwin, the author was particularly impressed with Moore's characterization of his hero. Rubye de Remer plays the leading feminine role.

Mr. Moore has made numerous successes in the picture drama. He appeared in "Pride of the Clan," "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea," "Runaway Roman," "Unpardonable Sin," "Sahara," "Sport off Kings," "Heart of the Wilds," "A Regular Fellow," "The Glorious Lady," "The Dark Star" and "Getting Mary Married."

LIFE IN SODOM COMPARED TO PRESENT DAY CITY LIFE

Evangelist Harmon Talks on "Lot's Choice" at First M. E. Church Revival on Tuesday Evening.

Dr. Harmon read as his evening lesson Tuesday night at the First M. E. Church, South, the thirteenth chapter of Genesis and drew a parallel between Lot's choice of the luxurious and material life as it existed in Sodom, and present day conditions of city life. In his discussion of his subject, he brought home to his hearers a great many general truths, dealing with every essential of life. Lot's choice was an illustration of the fact that many times when we think we are bettering ourselves we will find out too late, that we have left God out of our choice and that we are hurrying toward Sodom. In summing up his lesson, Dr. Harmon said that Lot's experience is a lasting proof that it is possible to pay too dearly for material things.

STATE ORPHANS ARE MOVED FROM CITY TO FARM

Kentucky Children's Home Society Moves From Stuffy City Buildings To Its New Cottage Home At Lyndon—Kiddies Are Happy.

Louisville, Ky. — The 160 children housed in the old row of residences in the city, which for 25 years had been the domicile of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, have moved to the country. They have left behind them the noise and bustle, to romp and play over the great farm at Lyndon, Ky. They have moved into their cottage village.

From out of strange easements, that cold gray days last week, 160 little faces peered with the first streaks of dawn, to look out upon entirely new fields.

In automobiles furnished by the Kiwanis Club, the children made the 15 miles journey from the old quarters on Baxter avenue, into the land of childhood's fancy and dreams. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon, the first automobile rolled up before the door of the old home, then came another automobile, another and another, the long line stretching into the distance.

Wild cheers resounded from each upstairs window to greet the Kiwanians and then the clatter of ruckling feet was the forerunner of the crowd of surging humanity that swirled out of doors and about the machines. The dream of a life time had been realized.

Many of the children learned for the first time the unhampered delight of great open fields to romp across; those were the children committed from Louisville and other Kentucky cities. Still others were but returning to fields they loved. They were children from the mountains, the coal fields and other rural sections of the state. These latter had known only that depressing poverty of rural life before being taken in under the protection of the society.

STEBENVILLE, O.

Twelve Families Driven From Their Homes In Coldest of Nights—Loss Large In Residential Section.

Stebenville, Ohio, Jan. 25. — Twelve families were homeless today, the result of a fire last night that threatened to become a conflagration in a closely congested residential district.

The families were driven to the street in the coldest weather of the year. Most of them had no opportunity to save furniture and other property.

After a tenement building, a large dance hall and two dwellings were destroyed firemen were compelled to use dynamite to save other houses.

The section in which the flames raged is without water. One line of hose was stretched for many blocks, but it was sufficient only to prevent a further spread of the fire.

Children playing with matches in an attic are believed to have started the fire.

The loss had not been estimated today.

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

MILITARISM RULES SPAIN.

Octogenarian Weyler, the former chief-of-staff of the Spanish army, will probably return to his job. The utterly inhuman dictator of Cuba, whose brutal disregard of the rights of noncombatants and the horrors of his camps of reconcentrados had much to do with bringing about the war with the United States, is on top again. His resignation will be withdrawn. The Maura ministry has fallen, and with it the minister of war who clashed with Weyler.

Juan de la Cierva refused to take Weyler's dictation. He read the riot act to the juntas of army officers. He made an apparently honest effort to restore civilian control such as the constitution of Spain contemplates, and without which parliamentary responsibility cannot exist, or, indeed, a free government. He has gone down.

Which means that militarism rules the Spain of today; that the Cortes lack power to enforce their constitutional authority; that King Alfonso reigns over a people that is not free, and reigns at the mercy of a military enbal. How long the people or the king will tolerate this condition we do not know. Be we are certain that it does not make for progress, and that in a world where democratic forms of government are becoming almost universal Spain stands as a shocking object lesson in retrogression.—Brooklyn Eagle.

NOT PRACTICING WHAT HE PREACHES

Henry Ford is shouting for fiat money but commercial reports tell us that when he sells a lot of Ford automobiles in Europe he demands gold or its equivalent in payment. Fortunate that Mr. Ford is not sitting in the Senate helping to make laws for the government, for he apparently would not adopt in government business the same principles he does in his private business.

Like the adventures of a certain "Alice in Wonderland," beautiful, golden-haired Alice Terry, stepped into the "movies" and with only a few months as an extra girl, was cast in the chief feminine lead of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," a Rex Ingram production for Metro Pictures Corporation coming to the Washington opera house next week.

For this eighteen-year-old high school girl, whose beauty and grace stand out in this colossal picturization of the world-famous novel by Vicente Blasco Ibanez, as adapted by Juno Mathis, actually sauntered into the movies and found a place all waiting for her.

It was not with deep design nor because she was an ardent picture fan that modern Alice became a heroine in movie wonderland, for until the day when she went on a visit to the Hollywood studios, the girl who today is known from coast to coast had never been innoculated with the camera germ.

In her little native town of Vincennes, Indiana, her early girlhood was spent in noquing those arts which one can easily picture as being the premiere qualifications for a gently nurtured young lady. Then five years ago she came to Los Angeles with her parents and continued her schooling with no thought of the fact that she was a resident of the capital of the film world.

But one day Alice heeded the pleadings of one of her girl friends to go with her to the studios where the girl friend was playing the part of an "extra." She talked with the director and a few minutes later was sharing a dressing room with a number of other extras and being initiated into the art of making up.

Alice had come to movie wonderland. Then like the traditional Alice in Wonderland, things began to happen with dizzy speediness for the little school girl and soon she was playing a prominent part in "Shore Acres," which Rex Ingram directed for Metro and when Mr. Ingram started gathering his cast of principals for "The Four Horsemen," Miss Terry was assigned the leading feminine role.

Ashland, Ky., Jan. 23.—A conference of delegates from the Presbyterian churches from Maysville to Pikeville was held at the Presbyterian church this afternoon.

Dr. George H. Mack, chairman of the New Era Movement of the church in this district, was in charge of the conference.

Speakers at the session were the Rev. Charles Ryan Adams of Springfield, Ohio, formerly district secretary at Chicago; the Rev. W. A. Elsomhart of Bowling Green; the Rev. Dr. B. J. Bush and Mrs. E. H. Potter, president of the women's syndical.

MAFFI FAVORED BY ITALIAN INTERESTS.

Rome, January 24.—While there seems to be no doubt that the next Pope will be an Italian, the newspapers draw a difference between Italian popes, expressing the hope that the next pontiff may be one who will put an end to the long discord between the church and the Italian government. Seemingly for that reason, Cardinal Maffi, arch-bishop of Pisa, is universally favored by the Italians, judging from the comment, and in virtually all the newspapers his name appears at the head of the list for the tiara of St. Peter.

SECRET OF A GOOD DISPOSITION

A woman who carefully safeguards her health benefits her disposition. She will be happy and attractive to all. The world unfortunately is filled with sweet women who are unhappy because they are held back from usefulness by troubles so common among them. Fretfulness and nervousness rapidly destroy good dispositions. Sickly, all-worn-out women cannot make happy homes.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a safeguard of women's health. This is clearly proven by the many letters we are continually publishing in this paper, from women who have been restored to health and happiness by its use after years of suffering. Why don't you try it?

PROPOSED AMENDMENT WOULD TAX ALL
TAX-FREE BONDS
Resolutions Are Offered To Offer the Twentieth Amendment to the Federal Constitution.

Financial conditions and heavy taxes have directed much attention to the proposed twentieth amendment to the Federal Constitution. It affects all taxpayers without regard to political affiliations.

Three resolutions providing for an amendment to permit Federal taxation of state and municipal bonds have been introduced and referred to Congressional committees.

They are all in harmony with the recommendation of President Harding's message to Congress.

"I think our tax problem, the tendency of wealth to seek non-taxable investment, and the menacing increase of public debt, Federal, state and municipal, — all justify a proposal to change the Constitution so as to end the issue of non-taxable bonds."

The last resolution introduced, that by Representative W. R. Green, of Iowa, is received with favor because it prohibits and discrimination between Federal and state securities. The Ways and Means committee of the House has it under consideration. It would add as the amendment the following:

"That from and after the adoption of this amendment as part of the Constitution the provisions of the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution shall apply to and include income derived from securities thereafter issued or created by any state or political subdivision thereof, or any dependency of the United States; but taxes on incomes derived from such securities must be laid without discrimination in favor of income derived from other securities of the same term and general class issued or created after the adoption of this amendment as part of the Constitution."

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeannie Price

New York. — We are rushing to our deaths here in this city, according to Health Commissioner Copeland. During 1921, he tells us, 12,006 of us died from heart disease, and the heart disease came from hurrying and hurrying too much, he avers. The crowded subways and the jump stock-ticker are two of the particular shotters of this situation according to his opinion. In fact, he says that these and other influences lead to such a general rushing state of mind on our part that our minds and nerves hurry even in our sleep.

—NY—
Speaking of the subways—we are taking this much comfort these days: The new turnstile gates which the company has installed to take the place of the ticket choppers will open for a nickel and no other coin. Pennies and dimes are equally futile as a passport through them. Now then, mustn't that mean that we are going to continue to ride for just one nickel and no more?

A committee of architects who are working to preserve the fine old building of New York has suggested that rather than allow the Vanderbilt home at Fifth avenue and 52nd street to be demolished as is planned, the city buy it and move it to some place uptown near one of the parks where it could be used as a museum. The mansion is the best type of French Renaissance architecture of the period of Francis I to be found in America, built in the style of the famous Chateau de Chenonceau, and worth preserving for its historical and artistic worth.

—NY—
Wouldn't it be interesting just to decide for yourself what a hotel shall charge you for room and bath and service? Just fancy saying "I think three dollars is about right for that room," and having the hotel management declare, "Quite all right. Three dollars it what it shall cost you." Sounds like Elysium or some place equally remote. But that's practically what you are going to do if you happen to be a share-holder in the Commonwealth, the New York co-operative hotel. You won't decide it quite all alone, that's the only difference, but by voting with the rest of the shareholders. As soon as the hotel is open, all the members, of whom there will be asked to decide what they shall pay for their accommodations when in this city. They will vote on the question and will make their choice between higher rates with larger profits or lower rates with lesser profits. According to the management, informal discussions have shown an interesting division. Most of the women members are for low rates and small profits and the men for higher rates and profits to correspond.

—NY—
"Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" will soon leave the Ritz Theater and start out on the road leaving New York regretful. This clever comedy which had some inaccurate publicity as being improper, deceived those who first went to it drawn by just those rumors and delighted those who had expected to disapprove. It turned out to have real humor and excellent acting and to stay quite within the bounds of good taste.

—NY—
After all, the exigencies of bread-winning do sometimes curb one's temperament and cramp one's style. Outside of a large office building the other day, two young girls stopped and consulted the want ad section of the newspaper they held. "This is the place," said the taller, "You wait here." Then she pulled the long green earings out of her ears, wiped her lips of a large part of their carmine, removed a little of the same from her cheeks, put her hat straighter on her head and entered the building of business and austerity. Her friend waited. Pretty soon, she returned. "Jolt's taken," she announced. "Then she fastened her earrings back in place, remodelled her complexion, snapped her hat into a tilt again and the two sauntered off.

BILL SETS $3,600 LIMIT ON OIL INSPECTOR'S PAY

Substitute for Measure To Abolish Post Would Give Excess Fees to K. U.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—No action will be taken by the committee on Municipalities on the bill introduced in the House by Representative Oscar Vest seeking to repeal the oil inspector law according to the members of the committee today.

A bill drafted by Representative Arch Hamilton of Lexington will be substituted for Mr. Vest's bill and will provide for a maximum salary of $3,600 annually for inspectors.

All fees over the maximum of $3,600 will be devoted to the University of Kentucky under the bill.

According to Mr. Hamilton, who is preparing the bill, it will bring a revenue to the University of Kentucky of approximately $125,000 annually.

Under the fee system the oil inspector in Jefferson county, held by Roscoe Searcy, is the best paid officer in Kentucky.

THE TIME TO TAKE PEPTO-MANGAN

When You Feel a Little "Off" It Will Bring You Back to Health.

Some people never need any medicine at all. They are, as the saying goes, "strong as a bull." They are mighty lucky. Most people need a good tonic once in a while. They take cold, or through overwork or social activity do not get enough sleep; many eat improper food and thus hurt the digestion. It is mighty wise to take Gude's Pepto-Mangan with the meals for a few weeks and build up. One cannot have too much good health. Pepto-Mangan gives you plenty of red blood, and everybody knows that red blood means feeling good and looking good all the time. Sold by druggists in liquid and tablet form. —Advertisement.

CRIME WAVE IS RENEWED IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—The first serious outbreak of crime in Chicago for 1922 is becoming manifest. One man has been shot and wounded probably fatally, two jewelry stores robbed, 25 hold-ups reported, and more than a score of minor crimes listed. The criminals escaped virtually unscathed, police doubting the importance of numerous arrests.

The constant buzzing of the police telephones manifested such criminal activity that early last evening Michael Hughes, chief of detectives ordered every available police motor car and squal to the streets.

MAN WOULD SQUARE U. S. INTO TEN STATES.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Thomas H. Gordinier, of Watts, Calif., has launched a plan for the twentieth amendment to the Constitution of the United States. He would reduce the number of states in the Union to ten, and have uniform laws.

In a letter to Representative Zebulon Weaver, of North Carolina, he has revealed his purpose, his reasons for it, and asks for quick action to get the suggested amendment before the various state legislatures.

The new commonwealths would be numbered and square, and of one size.

DOOMED MAN APPEALS TO COURT FOR LIFE.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—Six hundred and eighty-three pages of evidence and exhibits today were filed with the clerk of the Court of Appeals in the appeal of Walter P.
